

FIDE XXIV BURSARY

Madrid 3 - 6 November 2010

The Lisbon Treaty - Trick or Treat for the UK?

An essay competition to win a place at the most important law conference for European Law

The UK Association for European Law invites entries from law students, trainee solicitors and pupil barristers based at UK institutions and firms. The FIDE CONGRESS is a biennial event attended by over 500 jurists.

The main topics for November 2010 are

The European and National Parliaments

The Judicial Application of European Competition Law

Public Capital and Private Capital in the internal market: Securing a level playing field for public and private enterprises

Essays of no more than 2000 words (including footnotes) will be judged by a panel from the UKAEL committee.

The prize is registration at the FIDE CONGRESS XXIV in Madrid plus a bursary of £600 for travel and accommodation. To enter please send your essay to UKAEL by 15 June 2010. The winner will be expected to contribute a short written report on the Congress upon return.
